

Your English Challenge

We would love to see some of examples of your wonderful writing, so we've set you a 500-word challenge.

Your title is 'Wildlife During Lockdown' and you can choose whether you want to write fiction or non-fiction. If you chose to write fiction, then we would also like to see your design for the front cover of the book your story would be included in. If you decide you would like to write non-fiction then we want you to send in the front cover of the magazine that is featuring your article too.

You can email your entries to : wwc.office@ttl.org.uk and in the subject line please write Year 8 English Task.

We look forward to reading your work! Good Luck
