6. THE DISABILITY DISCRIMINATION ACT (DDA), SPECIAL NEEDS AND ACCESS ARRANGEMENTS

6.1 DDA

The Disability Discrimination Act 2005 extends the application of the DDA to general qualifications. All exam centre staff must ensure that the access arrangements and special consideration regulations and guidance are consistent with the law.

6.2 Special needs

A candidate's special needs requirements are determined by the SEN and the educational psychologist / specialist teacher.

The SENCO will inform subject teachers of candidates with special educational needs who are embarking on a course leading to an exam, and the date of that exam. The SENCO can then inform individual staff of any special arrangements that individual candidates may be granted during the course and in the exam.

6.3 Access arrangements

Making special arrangements for candidates to take exams is the responsibility of the SENCO and the exams officer.

Submitting completed access arrangement applications to the awarding bodies is the responsibility of the exams officer.

Rooming for access arrangement candidates will be arranged by the SENCO with the exams officer.

7. MANAGING INVIGILATORS AND EXAM DAYS

7.1 Managing invigilators

The recruitment of invigilators and initiating a request for Disclosure & Barring Service (DBS) clearance is the responsibility of the Exams Officer.

Securing the necessary (DBS) clearance for new invigilators is the responsibility of the Office Manager.

DBS fees for securing such clearance are paid by the centre.

Invigilators are timetabled and briefed by the exams office.

Invigilators' rates of pay are set by the centre administration.

7.2 Exam days

The exams officer will book all exam rooms after liaison with other users and make the question papers, other exam stationery and materials available for the invigilator.

Site management is responsible for setting up the allocated rooms.

The Exam Officer/Invigilator will start all exams in accordance with JCQ guidelines.

Subject staff may be present at the start of the exam to assist with identification of candidates but must not advise on which questions are to be attempted.

In practical exams subject teachers may be on hand in case of any technical difficulties. Exam papers must not be read by subject teachers or removed from the exam room before the end of a session. Papers will be distributed to subject leaders 24 hours after the end of the exam in accordance with JCQ guidelines (to take into account any overnight supervision of candidates elsewhere).

8. CANDIDATES, CLASH CANDIDATES AND SPECIAL CONSIDERATION

8.1 Candidates

In addition to JCQ regulations' regarding behaviour, mobile phones and electronic devices, the centre's published rules on acceptable dress, behaviour and candidates' use of mobile phones and all electronic devices apply at all times.

Candidates' personal belongings remain their own responsibility and the centre accepts no liability for their loss or damage.

Disruptive candidates are dealt with in accordance with JCQ guidelines.

Candidates may leave the exam room for a medical reason/genuine purpose requiring an immediate return to the exam room, in which case a member of staff must accompany them.

The exams officer will attempt to contact any candidate who is not present at the start of an exam and deal with them in accordance with JCQ guidelines.

8.2 Clash candidates

The exams officer will be responsible as necessary for identifying escorts, identifying a secure venue and identifying overnight stays.

8.3 Special consideration

Should a candidate be too ill to sit an exam, suffer bereavement or other trauma or be taken ill during the exam itself, it is the candidate's responsibility to alert the centre, or the exam invigilator, to that effect.

Any special consideration claim must be supported by appropriate evidence, for example a letter from the candidate's doctor.

The exams officer will then forward a completed special consideration form to the relevant awarding body within seven days of the last exam in the specification.

9. COURSEWORK AND APPEALS AGAINST INTERNAL ASSESSMENTS

9.1 Coursework

Candidates who have to prepare portfolios should do so by the end of the course or centre-defined date.

Subject leaders will despatch all coursework on time and will keep a record of what has been sent when and to whom along with a proof of posting.

Marks for all internally assessed work are provided to the exams office by the subject leaders for submission to the AB's, or submitted by subject leaders on-line.

9.2 Appeals against internal assessments

The centre is obliged to publish a separate procedure on this subject, which is published on the College website.

The main points are:

- appeals will only be entertained if they apply to the process leading to an assessment. There is no appeal against the mark or grade awarded

- candidates may appeal if they feel their coursework has been assessed unfairly, inconsistently or not in accordance with the specification for the qualification
- appeals should be made in writing to the head of centre (or other nominee) who will decide whether the process used conformed to the necessary requirements
- the head of centre's findings will be notified in writing, copied to the exams officer and recorded for awarding body inspection.

10. RESULTS, ENQUIRIES ABOUT RESULTS (EARS) AND ACCESS TO SCRIPTS (ATS)

10.1 Results

Candidates will receive individual results slips on results days in person at the centre.

The provision of staff on results days is the responsibility of the SLT.

10.2 EARs

EARs may be requested by centre staff (with candidates' consent) or candidates themselves if there are reasonable grounds for believing there has been an error in marking. If subject leaders do not believe that there has been an error in marking but the candidate or candidate's parent/carer still wishes to proceed, the candidate must pay the EAR fee. EARs requested by centre staff are paid for by the department.

10.3 ATS

After the release of results, candidates may ask subject leaders to request the return of papers.

If a result is queried, the exams officer, teaching staff and head of centre will investigate the feasibility of asking for a re-mark at the candidate's expense. Charged as in 11.2 EARs.

Centre staff may also request scripts for investigation or for teaching purposes. For the latter, the consent of candidates must be obtained.

GCSE re-marks cannot be applied for once a script has been returned.

11. CERTIFICATES

Certificates are presented in person.

Certificates may be collected on behalf of a candidate by a third party, provided they have been authorised to do so.

The centre retains certificates for one year.
