Operation Encompass

Westwood College is part of Operation Encompass. This is a partnership between the police and education settings within Staffordshire and Stoke on Trent. It allows school to offer immediate support for children and young people who are experience domestic abuse.

Operation Encompass will ensure that the Designated Safeguarding Lead is informed if domestic abuse has taken place. It allows school to use the information in confidence to make suitable provision for a child where necessary. The next steps will depend on the child's wishes and we will ensure that their voice is heard.
